

Emptystand III: Advice & Affirmations

Adriana
Baltazar

August 15
8PM Sharp

Join us this Saturday night at 8:00PM sharp on the roof of Captive Audience, for a one-night-only installation by Chicago artist and recent Cal Arts grad, Adriana Baltazar. Beverages, snacks, and chill vibes provided, as well as a poetry reading by Collin Brennan, Annabel Lang, and Hans Hetrick to kick off the night as the sun sets.

EMPTYSTAND is a collection of your Advice, Affirmations, Stories, Jokes, Theories, Two cents, and Anecdotes, to be performed by an unknown other. It is comedy / tragedy / therapy karaoke, performed to and with a captive audience. The content of each video is unknown to the performer or the audience prior to reading.

Adriana Baltazar is an interdisciplinary artist who was born in Chicago, and lives and works in Los Angeles. She is a recent graduate from Cal Arts, where she received her M.F.A., with her B.F.A. from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago.

SCREENING GALLERY

Captive Audience Screening Gallery is a private art space made public for intimate events. Located in McKinley Park, it is tucked away in a warehouse where you must be let in and guided to the gallery, therefore I will personally walk visitors in and out, in groups, at designated times. To attend this event, please arrive at 8PM sharp and plan to leave no earlier than 10:00 PM. For further questions, please call 630.854.2726
