Flight controllers here,
looking very carefully at the situation.
Obviously a major malfunction.

Please don't turn on the TV.
I don't want to see it again.

I still can't believe it.
The whole class counted along.

Boy, I wish it was me up there.
I kept thinking, this can't be happening.
It, it isn't real.

Then all the sudden there was a big flash,
and smoke went in all directions.

Some kids started to cry.
I was one them.

I just couldn't stop.
I just couldn't stop.

Why did it happen?
